

XXIV. AGI Young Researchers' Conference

12th & 13th April 2019 at the
Friedrich-Alexander-University Erlangen-Nürnberg
Findelgasse 7/9, 90402 Nürnberg

Call for Papers

The Young Researchers' Conference (NWT) of the Working Group of Institutes for Co-operative Studies (AGI) offers young researchers of the cooperative system a platform to network, share their knowledge and to receive feedback on their own work.

During this interdisciplinary conference, scientific contributions dealing with cooperative topics will be presented and discussed.

Contributions can be presented and discussed in the following ways:

- Presentation and discussion in parallel sessions (approx. 20 minutes)
- Poster presentation within the conference surroundings

Conference languages are German and English. Please send us an abstract of your contribution (maximum 300 words) by 15.02.2019, with the corresponding form to the following address: matthias.wrede@fau.de or reichel@genossenschaftsinstitut.de

There is the opportunity to submit research papers to the "Zeitschrift für das gesamte Genossenschaftswesen" (<http://www.zfgg.de/>).

The conference participation fee is 75 Euro. This amount covers two lunches, one dinner and two coffee breaks. Travel and accommodation arrangements must be made independently.
